

THE NATTERJACK
— INN —

2018/2019

We are proud of The Natterjack's history as a Pub and Inn that served the community of Evercreech Junction and beyond. We continue in the tradition of a community Pub, welcoming all and offering good food in comfortable and friendly surroundings.

The Natterjack is a truly traditional pub, offering a wide choice of locally sourced, home-cooked food, real ales and fine wines. Its warm and friendly atmosphere lends itself to all occasions.

We source from local suppliers so that we can offer fresh, local and seasonal produce and also keep our environmental footprints to a minimum. Our beef, pork, lamb and poultry comes from local farms. In fact as you drive towards the pub from Shepton Mallet you can see the free range pigs roaming in a field on the left. When we say local we mean it!!

With traditional pub dishes from fish and chips to our prestigious Sunday Roasts, each dish is prepared with extra care and attention from our chefs. Our desserts are also carefully prepared with love and attention. Giving you the best possible food experience.

Located at the edge of our lovely garden and overlooking a small orchard are The Old Cider House and The Sidings. Now fully restored, they are home to 7 beautiful En Suite rooms and 2 charming self catering cottages. Each room has its own style, blending antique furniture with retro print fabrics to create a luxurious and yet homely feel.

In the Cider House we have named each room after apples, most of them locally grown cider apples as a nod to the building's original use.

In The Sidings the rooms and cottages are named after stations on the Somerset and Dorset Railway Line that used to run directly behind us.

You will find homemade cookies and hot chocolate in your room as well as herb teas and real milk for your coffee. All rooms have a flat screen TV, hairdryer and WiFi.

A little road trip from Scotland's East coast down to Somerset/Dorset areas. Was recommended this little gem by some locals. The welcoming was excellent, food of high standard, customers were friendly & the craft cider choice didn't fall short .

Lovely people, lovely food, lovely accommodation. Would highly recommend this place. It is in an excellent location for visiting Cheddar, Bath and the seaside towns. Breakfast was delicious as was the food in the evening. The menu is varied and exceptionally reasonable.

Booked 2 nights and ended up staying 3. Fantastic accommodation and food run to perfection by Adrian and Kate and their well chosen staff. If you are in the area don't miss at dropping in for the drink. Entertain the thought though of staying, you won't regret it!
